No additional help needed

Feel free to end this chat and fill out our survey. Thank you, have a good day.

Verify Email

The email address you entered and the one we have on file are different. Can you please verify which one we should have?

DDC information

Copy of citation

Defensive driving school requires that you have a copy of your citation. We can send one to you via secure mail if you can verify your date of birth, address, and phone number. Thank you.

First Extension Request

Your court date has been extended and must be completed 7 days prior to the listed date on your calendar notice. You must give the driving school the listed date on your notice.

File Motion for second ext.

Our records indicate that an extension has been previously granted on this citation. To request an additional extension, a formal request must be made to the judge by filing a motion.

Online motion submission

1. Go to <https://eservices.scottsdaleaz.gov/Court/Case/>;
2. Enter the numeric portion of your case/complaint number.
3. Choose your name.
4. Scroll down and click on "Online Motion Submission".
5. In the text box place your request to the court, along with your current contact information and email address, and then click "Submit Motion"

Not Eligible

This case/charge is not eligible for defensive driving school extension.

Signing up for DDC

You must contact a Defensive Driving School by visiting the website www.azdrive.com or calling 1-888-334-5565 which is an automated response system. To assist you with the selection of a school you will need to know that the City of Scottsdale is located within Maricopa County and our court number is 0751. You must complete a class at least 7 days before your new extension date. You may get a first-time, one-time only extension for defensive driving school. If your case meets the criteria, you will be granted an extension.

TSS vs. DDC

Defensive Driving Class (DDC) is a class to be completed once a year (by date of violation) to get an eligible charge dismissed.

For more details regarding DDC, please visit the link below. <https://www.scottsdaleaz.gov/court/defensive-driving-class>

Traffic Survival School (TSS) is a class required by the Motor Vehicle Department (MVD) to retain your driving privileges. If you've been ordered to complete TSS by MVD, please contact them for details. (602) 255-0072 or <https://azdot.gov/motor-vehicles/driver-services/tests-manuals-and-driving-schools/driving-schools>.

Order of Protections

Filing Protective Order

To file for an order of protection or injunction against harassment, you must fill out a petition form and present it to the court in-person during normal business hours. You can fill out petitions online at www.azpoint.azcourts.gov  you can also fill out the petition manually by printing forms on our website. Once your petition is completed you can appear in-person Monday – Friday 8:00 to 5:00 p.m. at 3700 N 75th St., Scottsdale, AZ, 85251 or appear remotely. To appear remotely please contact us at 480-312-2442. If you need assistance with filling out a petition you can contact a victim advocate at 480-312-4226.

PO Request – Plaintiff

If you are requesting to dismiss, cancel, or contest the Protective Order you will need to fill out a request form. You must file this motion in-person and bring a photo ID. A judicial officer will speak to you about your request. Walk-in hours are 8:30 a.m. - 11:30 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

PO Request – Defendant

If you are requesting to dismiss, cancel, or contest the Protective Order you will need to fill out a request form. You can file the form electronically by submitting to court@scottsdaleaz.gov and a hearing will be set for both parties to be present in front of a judge. You can also file the form in-person but note that you will not get a ruling same day. All requests from the defendant will be set to a hearing. If you have not been served you will need to accept service at the courthouse or be served before you can request to dismiss, cancel, or contest an order.

PO Firearms transfer

At the Ex-Parte hearing the Judge may determine that the defendant is a credible threat to the physical safety of the plaintiff or other protected persons. The defendant must transfer the firearm to Scottsdale PD or local law enforcement if so ordered by the judge.

LiveHelp Chat Canned Responses Guide

Rev. April 2022

Timeline for the firearms transfer

Once the Defendant has been served with the Order of Protection packet, they must transfer the firearms to the Scottsdale Police Department within 24 hours.

Declaration of firearms transfer

A Declaration of Firearms transfer is a document filed by the Defendant as proof that they've transferred all firearms to law enforcement in accordance with a Protective Order that has the firearm pursuant to ARS 13-3602(G)(4) selected. This means the Defendant has complied with the conditions of the order to transfer firearms and has filed their proof of transfer with the Court. If you believe this information to be incorrect or have knowledge the Defendant is in possession of firearms, please contact the Scottsdale Police Department at (480) 312-5000 for investigation.

Declaration of NO firearms to transfer

A Declaration of No Firearms to transfer is a document filed by the Defendant as proof that they have no firearms to transfer to law enforcement in accordance with a Protective order that has the firearm pursuant to ARS 13-3602(G)(4) selected. If you believe this information to be incorrect or have knowledge the Defendant is in possession of firearms, please contact the Scottsdale Police Department at (480) 312-5000 for investigation.

Timeline for the Declaration of firearms transfer

Once the Defendant has been served with the Order of Protection packet, the Declaration of Firearm(s) Transfer must be filed with the City Court within two days of being served. If the City Court is closed on the second day, the Defendant must file the Declaration of Firearm(s) Transfer the next day that the City Court is open.

Motion for Order to Release Firearms

A Motion for Order to Release Firearms is a motion that the Defendant can file if the Protective Order case has met certain criteria to remove the firearms transfer order such as the order of protection has expired, the plaintiff requested the order to be dismissed or modified removing the transfer order, and it is granted. The court modified or dismiss the order of protection at a contested hearing removing the firearms transfer.

Order to Release Firearms

An Order to Release Firearms is an order releasing previously transferred firearms. The Defendant can take this release order to the Police Department to get the previously transferred firearms back.

Photo Enforcement

Notice of Violation

If you have received a Notice of Violation, this is not a Summons to Appear. This is a notice that a vehicle registered to you was documented to be in violation of the charge indicating in the notice, by the Scottsdale Police Photo Safety Cameras.

You may view your images online at www.ViolationInfo.com. You will need your Notice # and PIN printed on the front of your notice. If you do not have internet access, please call the Focus on Safety information line at 844-749-5996 for information on how to view your images.

Questions: If you have any questions, please contact the Focus on Safety information line at 844-749-5996.

Rev. April 2022

Do not ignore your responsibility to pay the fines because of financial hardship as there are several payment options available from the court. If you intend to plead responsible but cannot afford to pay the full amount of court fines and fees, you may request a time payment plan in person at the court.

For more information, please visit the website below:

<https://www.scottsdaleaz.gov/court/civil-traffic-cases/photo-enforcement>

To make a payment

1. Go to <https://eservices.scottsdaleaz.gov/Court/Case/>
2. Enter the numeric portion of your case/complaint number OR Name but not both.
3. Choose your name.
4. Scroll down to financial section and insert amount to be paid OR choose which charge you are pleading responsible to.

Option B - Declaration of Non-Driver

If you were not the driver of the vehicle at the time of the alleged violation, complete Option B coupon on page 2 of the complaint and return it in the enclosed postage paid envelope. You must include a clear copy of Government-issued photo identification as proof you were not the driver.

NOTE: Pursuant to A.R.S. Section 28-1593(c): You are not obligated to identify the driver or respond to your photo enforcement complaint. However, failure to respond by the 30-Day Acknowledgement date on the complaint will result in the assessed cost of personal or alternative service. The 30-Day Acknowledgement date is listed on page 1 and 3, of your complaint packet.

If it is determined by the State that you were not the driver, your complaint will be dismissed and a new complaint will then be issued to the appropriate party.

If you fail to respond to this complaint, you may be personally served at your own expense, your driver license may be suspended, and a default judgment may be issued.

Option C - Request a Hearing

You may request a hearing to contest the complaint. Complete the information on the Option C coupon on page 2 of your complaint & return it to the Court in the enclosed postage paid envelope.

To avoid a delinquency notice & additional cost, mail the envelope at least 5 working days before the court date & time on your complaint. You will be notified by mail & must appear on the hearing date & time assigned by the court. At that time, you will be afforded the opportunity to testify regarding your case and to question the state's evidence.

You may file a written request for a documentary hearing. You must show why attending a civil traffic hearing would cause a substantial hardship, which is more than a mere inconvenience & must be based on extraordinary circumstances.

If you fail to respond to this complaint, you may be personally served at your expense, a default judgment may be entered against you, & your driver license may be suspended.

Insurance charges are eligible for dismissal with proof of insurance, valid at the date and time you were cited; you can submit proof to court@scottsdaleaz.gov. If you did not have insurance at the time you were cited, a copy of 6 months valid insurance may allow for the reduction of the fine. You may submit a copy of your current valid insurance and a copy of your 39-month motor vehicle record to court@scottsdaleaz.gov for possible reduction.

Proof of Registration

Registration charges are eligible to be dismissed if you provide a valid copy of your vehicle registration. Proof of registration can be submitted to court@scottsdaleaz.gov.

Warnings

Pending Court action, upcoming collections – INSERT DATE

The court is prepared to send your case to a collection agency if you do not contact the court by INSERT DATES. Additional collection fees will be assessed if your case goes into collections and the collection agency is authorized to garnish your wages. In addition, this may prevent the re-registration of your vehicle(s) in Arizona. The court will notify the Arizona Department of Revenue for interception of your Arizona income tax refund and/or Arizona Lottery winnings. At this time, all civil traffic violations have been defaulted. A default means a judgment has been entered in favor of the State of Arizona.

To make a payment

1. Go to <https://eservices.scottsdaleaz.gov/Court/Case/>
2. Enter the numeric portion of your case/complaint number OR Name but not both.
3. Choose your name.
4. Scroll down to financial section and insert amount to be paid OR choose which charge you are pleading responsible to.

FARE CAP Default

As a result of your failure to pay or provide community restitution completion, the court may have notified the Department of Motor Vehicle to suspend your driving privileges. Furthermore, your case has been reactivated with the collection agency. The collection fee has been reassessed on your case and the collection agency is authorized to garnish your wages. In addition, this may prevent the re-registration of your vehicle(s) in Arizona. The Court will notify the Arizona Department of Revenue for interception of your Arizona income tax refund and/or Arizona Lottery winnings.

To make a payment

1. Go to <https://eservices.scottsdaleaz.gov/Court/Case/>
2. Enter the numeric portion of your case/complaint number OR Name but not both.
3. Choose your name.
4. Scroll down to financial section and insert amount to be paid OR choose which charge you are pleading responsible to.

Notice of Pending Action – FTA INSERT DATE

The warrant for your arrest will be issued, a warrant fee assessed, and any bond posted may be subject to forfeiture. IF you have civil charges, your case will be in default. A default means a judgment will be entered in favor of the State of Arizona, fines and fees assessed, and judgment information may be reported to the Motor Vehicle Division which could cause your driving privileges to be suspended.
